ROCKY MOUNTAINEER®

ALL ABOARD AMAZING

Rocky Mountaineer offers a variety of unique Canadian vacation packages with three distinctive rail routes through British Columbia and Alberta. Their world-renowned, luxury train travels by daylight through the wild beauty of Canada's West and is the best way to experience the majestic Canadian Rockies.

Every mile is a journey as Rocky Mountaineer carves through otherwise inaccessible terrain. What a unique way to experience the sheer sides of mountains, steep canyons and untamed western wilderness all from the luxury of your seat. You will stop off at world-class cities, national parks, quaint valleys and tranquil lakes.

There are two types of services available: GoldLeaf and SilverLeaf Service. If you choose their GoldLeaf Service, you will be on a bi-level glass dome coach with panoramic views, an outdoor viewing platform and a private dining room downstairs with a full culinary team providing an a la carte menu using fresh, seasonal ingredients. Their SilverLeaf Service offers a single-level glass dome coach where your hot, three-course gourmet meal is served at your seat, made with fresh, seasonal ingredients. Complimentary meals, drinks and gourmet snacks are included in both services as you share pleasantries with fellow travelers from all corners of the world.

Whether you choose their GoldLeaf Service or their SilverLeaf Service, you will experience impeccable service. Everything is carefully choreographed to make your journey feel special, effortless and unforgettable. You will be wined and dined as you travel through the Rockies – such a relaxing way to enjoy this beautiful country.

When the train stops and the sun rests, the enjoyment continues. You are transported to one of their preferred hotels in each of their unique destinations where you will find restaurants on the property or within walking distance as you explore some of the region's cosmopolitan cities and picturesque towns before retiring for the night.

Their most popular route, First Passage to the West, retraces the steps of the 19th century explorers who first marveled at this untamed wilderness and gives a living history lesson on the building of a nation.

Their Journey through the Clouds route takes you through some of the most untouched, most breathtaking natural beauty on the planet. By geological standards, the Canadian Rockies are a relatively young mountain range and, because they're remote, they are essentially unspoiled.

On their Rainforest to Gold Rush route, you will find the world's most natural treasures. This route takes you from one extreme to the next, in the best way possible. From the world's largest temperate rainforest to desert landscapes. From a vibrant city to a quaint mountain town. From tranquil ranchland to some of the most untamed wilderness anywhere on the planet.

Rocky Mountaineer offers luxurious service levels to decide upon, a range of spectacular routes to consider, romantic seasons to travel in and incredible package categories to peruse. Choose your preferred options from one of their three routes and before you know it, you'll have your once-in-a-lifetime journey laid out before you that suits your style, interests and budget.

The unparalleled experience onboard the all domed fleet offers rich, historic storytelling, world-class cuisine and a first-hand look at the vast and untouched wild beauty of Western Canada. From the moment you step into the station till the time you step off the train at the end of your journey, you are treated as royalty.

Rocky Mountaineer is consistently named among the best travel experiences in the world. Having welcomed over two million guests, this iconic Canadian experience marries the glamour of world-class rail travel with stunning scenery of Western Canada – a must-do experience!

Clients Corner

Kathy Edwards - Yorktown, VA

My college roommate and I had been talking for several years about taking a trip to Italy. When it came time to plan it, we turned to Kim Gambino at Warwick Travel to do it, as she has planned and scheduled many previous vacations for my family.

We told Kim that we did not want "touristy" destinations; that we wanted to stay in boutique hotels with beautiful views in the areas of Tuscany and the Amalfi Coast; and how long we wanted to stay. We told her we wanted to soak up the culture and enjoy the people and tastes of the regions. Our vacation to Italy was perfect, flawless, and even turn-key in every way possible.

From the charming hotels to the planned day tours; from the private transfers and train tickets, Kim provided us with directions and vouchers with up-to-the-hour details and phone numbers if needed. I'm sure her "ears were burning" while we were in Italy, because we marveled aloud about Kim's attention to detail and the extra care she took to insure a smooth and fun vacation. Kudos to Kim!

Bermuda, Jewel of the Atlantic

Sharon Flick

Bermuda offers a colorful getaway with signature pink-sand beaches, brilliant blue waters and long, green fairways; plus a breadth of historic sites and warm, friendly people. Because of its mild climate and plethora of attractions, there is something here for everyone to enjoy.

Picturesque Horse Shoe Bay is the perfect place for couples looking to spark romance or relax completely or for families looking for a little quality time. Shop for imported woolen items for home and get fitted for Bermuda shorts to be worn during your stay.

Explore the capital, Hamilton, and its outstanding dining, shopping and nightlife and visit St. George – the oldest continuously inhabited English town in the New World and UNESCO World Heritage Site – or explore over 300 shipwrecks in nearby reefs.

Bermuda’s golf courses are spectacular and feature the great designs of Jack Nicklaus and Robert Trent Jones, Sr. Coupled with the island’s trade winds and challenging layouts, golfers of all skill levels from around the world find themselves coming back time and again to conquer the courses.

Bermuda is located 650 miles from North Carolina and this active commonwealth island actually has more ties to Britain and the Caribbean than the U.S.

Your Warwick Travel Advisor will gladly put a package together that will create long lasting memories for you.

Bucharest, capital of Romania

by Nancy B. Alligood, CTC, Warwick Travel Service

Last year, I had the unique opportunity to escort a group of Warwick Travelers on an Eastern Mediterranean River Cruise on the lower Danube River, disembarking in Bucharest, a part of the world I had never visited.

Located in southern Romania, Bucharest is the country's capital and by far the most visited city in Romania, located in Eastern Europe. It has a vibrant and crowded Old Town, with plenty of historical attractions, restaurants, small shops and bars.

The Old Town area is historic; it is where Bucharest was founded in the 1300s. According to legend, Bucar, the Shepherd, founded the city when he built a church on the eastern bank of the Dambovitza River. In the 1400s, a palace and court (Palatul Curtea Veche) was built in the area now called Old Town, and the city grew around the palace.

We began our city tour with our local guides, stopping for lunch at the Caru cu Bere Restaurant in Old Town. With its history of more than 130 years, it continues to be a favorite meeting spot for locals as well as tourists. The Neo-Gothic style architecture on the vaulted ground floor displays richly decorated stained glass windows, mosaics and beautiful carved paneling. The ambience was overwhelming and the Romanian food was quite delicious.

Old Town was and continues to be one of the most animated and full of life places in Bucharest. With its cobblestone streets, antique shops, galleries and cafes, it is a mix of history, local culture and life style, a trendy entertainment district and a favorite hangout for locals, especially on weekends. Near the center of the city, there is an area with small streets and a big variety of inter-war buildings where you find many pubs, clubs and terraces.

The area was more or less all that was left of pre-World War II Bucharest. What the war didn't destroy during the allied bombings in early 1944, Communism did. Bucharest was occupied by Soviet troops in 1944 and became a satellite of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) in 1948. The country was under Communist rule until 1989, when the regime of Romanian leader Nicolae Ceausescu was overthrown.

After decades of neglect, major infrastructure renovation works have breathed new life into Bucharest's Old Town. Many of its superb period buildings have been refurbished or restored, while others, whose beauty contrasts sharply with its state of degradation, are still waiting for their time. Nevertheless, the historic architecture, the old churches, the outdoor terraces and cafes make Old Town a most enticing area of the city.

That evening, our group visited and toured the Palace of Parliament, the second largest administrative building in the world (after the Pentagon), also known as the People's House. The construction began in 1983, when Romania was under Communist reign, and by the time of the Romanian Revolution in 1989, the building was yet to be completed. Today, the building has only 400 chambers and two large halls that can be used out of its total of 1,100 rooms. Most of the rooms are used for administrative purposes.

Modern Bucharest is an easily walkable city. You will find Communist-style architecture most everywhere. The Old Town district is easily accessible from anywhere in central Bucharest.

Visit Romania. Spend a long weekend in Bucharest, but don't limit yourself just to the capital. The country has so much more to offer. Transylvania is a historical region, located in central Romania where you will find the famous Bran Castle near Brasov, a Transylvania top tourist attraction—all within driving distance of Bucharest.

Our group had an amazing time visiting the city as well as traveling outside of the city. Add the Eastern European countries to your bucket list.

Now is a good time to travel. See the world, immerse in other cultures, make new friends, enjoy and build memories that will last a lifetime. I certainly am! ◀
